2011 Annual Appeal

HTTP://AIC.LADIESOFCHARITY.US

The 2010 Annual Appeal provided funds for LCUSA to make a difference for communities facing chronic or sudden crisis in 2011.

For The International Vincentian Family

- † Provided twenty scholarships to Haitian children for the Vincentian Family Systemic Change Project

- † Supported the Daughters of Charity's work in Japan following the earthquake and tsunami
- † Provided financial assistance to AIC Panamanian Family for stay in a Shriner's Hospital where their young son was being treated.

Funding from the 2011 Annual Appeal will continue the valuable support provided to the local associations by LCUSA:

- † A current and informative website with tools, resources, and connections to our Vincentian Family
- † A National office to serve the associations with needed materials and support to operate as an LCUSA association
- † Scholarships for association members to attend the National Assembly in Washington

- † Grants to support local associations in the areas of literacy and direct assistance to those living in poverty.

The 2011 Annual Appeal will support the national and international collaborations with the Vincentian Family in 2012.

LCUSA will participate in the gatherings to educate and strengthen our Vincentian Family work on Systemic Change.

LCUSA will join and support the Coalition of Catholic Organizations working to eliminate the scourge of human trafficking.

LCUSA will continue to support local and international associations to make a difference in communities facing sudden crisis or disasters in 2012.

Provided funds to Bastrop Ladies of Charity to support families who lost their homes from the wildfires in Texas.
