Other things to do in Pittsburgh:

The second largest city in Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh is rampant with amazing and unique destinations that are sure to entice anyone's interest. We highly recommend that you come a day early or stay an extra day to enjoy only a small portion of what the city offers. We have listed some of the options available to you. Most importantly, you will not want to miss a moment of the Assembly or the Optional Tours, so come spend a few extra days with us.

Carnegie Museum of Art and Natural History

The Carnegie Museum of Art is a dynamic, contemporary art museum that features a collection of more than 30,000 objects across a spectrum of art forms, ranging from painting and sculpture to decorative arts, design, film and video. One of the top Pittsburgh attractions, the museum explores the role of art and artists in society and confronts social issues through an extensive range of permanent and traveling exhibitions, art programming and publications.

The Carnegie Museum of Natural History is ranked as one of the top five natural history museums in the country. Carnegie Museum of Natural History is one of the best things to do in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The museum features over 10,000 specimens on display in 20 galleries and over 20 million specimens cataloged in online databases on the Museum's extensive research library. World-renowned exhibitions include the "Dinosaurs in Their Time" exhibition, which presents the third largest collection of mounted, displayed dinosaurs in the country.

Both are located at 4400 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Phone: 412-622-3131

The National Aviary, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Located on Pittsburgh's historic North Side, the National Aviary is one of the foremost bird sanctuaries in the country, home to more than 500 birds from 150 different species from across the globe, many of them threatened or endangered in the wild. The National Aviary features extensive, interactive exhibits that visitors can walk through to allow for an intimate interaction with the free-flying birds, and once-in-a-lifetime opportunities to hand feed and meet many rare species. It is located at 700 Arch Street, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Phone: 412-323-7235.

JUST DUCKY TOURS

The pick-up and drop-off for the hour-long tour is few steps from the hotel entrance. Just Ducky Tours is a fully-narrated one-hour land and water adventure! Each excursion begins in historic Station Square before waddling through town then splashing into the river for the ride of your life in an authentic WWII amphibious vehicle. Along the way, you'll see the sights and sounds of our great city, and its important role in history!
