Simplicity
Sr. Marie Julia Rasoaritiana, DC

Saint Vincent encourages us to be simple and he tells us that the spirit of Jesus Christ is a spirit of simplicity, which consists in telling the truth in all things, and taking God alone as our reference.

With the help of God who never fails us, we strive to live according to this virtue.

Simplicity is a path that brings us closer to Jesus and puts us in a close and fraternal relationship with people living in poverty. It erases the distances that could take us away from them.

In our community, it allows us to establish easy relationships with one another and to be coherent and faithful to our commitments.

Simplicity commits us to denouncing all that is lies, duplicity and injustice.
