

Things To See and Do

Here are just a few things that beautiful Miami can offer you in your free time:

South Beach & Ocean Drive: Stroll the famous strip to view colorful 1930s architecture and relax on the white sands.

Wynwood Walls: An open-air museum featuring massive, vibrant murals by global street artists.

Vizcaya Museum & Gardens: A breathtaking Italian Renaissance-style waterfront villa filled with antiques and lush, sprawling gardens.

Little Havana: Experience Miami's Cuban heartbeat by strolling down Calle Ocho, sipping authentic Cafecito, and watching locals play dominoes.

Everglades National Park: Take an airboat tour just outside the city to spot alligators and explore the unique marshland ecosystem.

Biscayne Bay: Take a daytime sightseeing cruise along "Millionaire's Row" to see celebrity mansions and the city skyline.

Phillip and Patricia Frost Museum of Science: A massive, modern downtown museum featuring a three-level aquarium and cutting-edge planetarium.
